

Newton Classes and KAPLAN

Newton Classes offered UCAT preparation courses are powered by the KAPLAN question bank and online resources.

Kaplan is the world leader in test preparation and have served millions of students since their founding over 80 years ago. Globally, they offer preparation for many standardised tests for college and graduate school admissions. Test prep is delivered online in more than 100 countries and through resellers and partners in over 30 countries.

Kaplan's depth of knowledge, experience and resources in helping students is unparalleled. Their self-paced online courses, practice tools, and extensive library of books and software all have proven success in helping students achieve their goals. Every student's learning is aided by state-of-the-art diagnostic and prescriptive tools to provide a truly personalised experience.

Kaplan as the leading provider of preparation courses for the UKCAT (from which the UCAT Australia and New Zealand is derived), now offers score-raising courses for students taking the identical UCAT ANZ.
